ONE SOLITARY LIFE

One Solitary Life

Dr James Allan, 1926.

He was born in an obscure village
The child of a peasant woman
He grew up in another obscure village
Where he worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty

He never wrote a book
He never held an office
He never went to college
He never visited a big city
He never travelled more than two hundred miles
From the place where he was born
He did none of the things
Usually associated with greatness
He had no credentials but himself

He was only thirty three when his friends ran away

One of them denied him
He was turned over to his enemies
And went through the mockery of a trial
He was nailed to a cross between two thieves While dying, his executioners gambled for his clothing - the only property he had on earth

When he was dead He was laid in a borrowed grave Through the pity of a friend

Nineteen centuries have come and gone
And today Jesus is the central figure of the human race
And the leader of mankind's progress
All the armies that have ever marched
All the navies that have ever sailed
All the parliaments that have ever sat
All the kings that ever reigned put together
Have not affected the life of mankind on earth
As powerfully as that one solitary life

“The character of Jesus has not only been the highest pattern of virtue, but the strongest incentive in its practice, and has exerted so deep an influence, that it may be truly said that the simple record of three years of active life has done more to regenerate and to soften mankind than all the disquisitions of philosophy and all the exhortations of moralists”.

W. E. H. Lecky

Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for all the books that would be written.

written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in
His name. n 20:31

HEBREWS 4:12

A close-up photograph of a large, dark, charred log. The log is positioned diagonally across the frame, with its tip glowing bright white and orange, suggesting it is being burned. The background is filled with a bright, intense fire, with yellow and orange flames visible. The overall scene is dramatic and emphasizes the power of fire.

"IS NOT MY WORD LIKE FIRE," DECLARES THE LORD,
"AND LIKE A HAMMER THAT BREAKS A ROCK IN PIECES?"
